

7th Global NTA Meeting: Population Aging and the Generational Economy
Draft Agenda - Paper titles are subject to change

Friday, June 11, 2010

8:30-9:00 Registration with coffee and pastries

9:00-9:15 Welcoming remarks Charles Morrison

Session I. What have we learned about population aging and the generational economy?

9:15-10:00 Andrew Mason Key findings from population aging and the generational economy

10:00 -10:30 Coffee break

10:30 - 11:15 Ronald Lee Fundamental concepts from population aging and the generational economy

11:15 - 11:45 Mwabu and Soyibo Shaping social protection in Africa: Update of National Transfer Accounts estimates in five African countries

11:45 - 1:30 Lunch

Session II (concurrent)

Coffee Break

Session IIa. Population Aging and the Public Sector

Holz, Mauricio	Bravo, Jorge	Intra and intergenerational transfers in the Chilean public health system
NARAYANA		Economic effects of population ageing on India's public finance: Evidence and implications based on National Transfer Accounts
MÉJIA-GUEVARA	FERNÁNDEZ-VARELA	Generational and National Transfer Accounting: A review of the long-run fiscal sustainability in Mexico
PATXOT	RENTERÍA ROMERO	Integrated results for GA and NTA for Spain: some implications for the sustainability of welfare state
Marisa Bucheli	Cecilia González	Cecilia Olivieri
		Public transfers in Uruguay: 1994 and 2006

Session IIb. Generational Economy in Older Countries

RICE	TEMPLE	McDONALD	National Transfer Accounts for Australia, 2003-2004
JIANG			The updated NTA estimates and its policy implication in China
VAITTINEN	RIIHELA	VANNE	Changing patterns of intergenerational resource allocation in Finland
OOSTHUIZEN	SOUTO		First set of results (NTA estimates for South Africa)
McCARTHY			A first estimate of NTAs for the UK

Session IIc. Generational Economy in Younger Countries

MALIKI		Education transfers and cost of MDGs achievement
MURIITHI		National Transfer Account for Kenya: A comparative analysis of labour income profiles
MARIANO	CHIPEMBE	The economic lifecycle: Evidence from Mozambique
DRAMANI		Early results of implementing NTA in Senegal
LAI	TUNG	How costly are children?

Saturday, June 12, 2010

9:00 - 11:30 Session III (Concurrent)

10:00-10:30 Coffee Break

Session IIIa. Research Frontiers

ROSETO-BIXBY

SALAS

CHUN

DONEHOWER

The "other" intergenerational transfers: bequests and care of the elderly in Latin America

Remittance assignment and its impact on old-age reallocation system in Philippine NTA

Who bears the fiscal burden of public long-term care insurance in Korea?

US Accounts from bubble to bust: 2003 to 2009

Session IIIb. Comparative Analyses of the Generational Economy

LEE

KLUGE

SAAD

MILLER

PAJUNEN

Matsukura,
Chawla, and

Ogawa

Mason

Tung

Retirement, pension reform, and lifecycle pension wealth: An international comparison

Differences in consumption, labour income and transfers in East and West Germany

Recent trends in intergenerational co-residence and transfers in Latin America

Declining fertility, the rising cost of children and better human capital in Japan, Taiwan and Thailand

Session IIIc. Extensions of National Transfer Accounts

GAL

BAWDEKAR

KIM

HALLBERG

LADUSINGH

SONG

LINDH

Stocks from flows: contribution asset and the rate of return in the Hungarian pension system

Time transfer and elderly support in Pune, India

Subjective equivalence index and public transfers

Intergenerational transfers for men and women in Sweden 2003: A first look at flows in the formal sectors

11:30-12:00 NTA Business Meeting (Next conference; other activities planned; communication project; other ideas or concerns)

12:00 - 1:30 Lunch

Session IV: Advances in Economic Research

1:30 - 2:00 Ohtake

SAMBT

PRSKAWETZ

MALACIC

Poverty and inequality in Japan

An Aging Society: Opportunity or challenge for European NTA countries

2:30 - 3:00 Bravo

Miller

Public transfers from population aging and the generational economy

3:00 - 3:30 Coffee break

Session V: Panel on Bringing research to bear on policy

3:30 - 4:30 Mr. Nguyen Trong Dam, Vice Minister, Ministry of Labour, Invalids and Social Affairs (MoLISA), Vietnam

Dr. Haichao Lei, director of policy making and regulation of MOH, China

Participant from India - Can Ann please fill this out?

Session VI: Closing

4:30 - 5:00 Closing remarks and announcements

6:30 Welcoming Reception