

8th Global NTA Meeting
“Intergenerational Approaches to Social and Economic Policy”
Cedeplar - Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais
Belo Horizonte, Brazil
December 5-9, 2011

Call for Papers

The 8th NTA Global Meeting Organizing Committee invites NTA researchers to submit an abstract of their paper for presentation at the Conference portion to be held December 8-9, 2011 in Belo Horizonte, Brazil. Note that training and workshop sessions will be held on December 5-7, 2011. Papers can be submitted to oral or poster sessions. The poster session is intended for people who want to present basic results from National Transfer Accounts or work in very early stages.

We invite NTA researchers to submit papers on the following topics:

- 1 Generational Accounts
- 2 Sandwich Generation
- 3 Bequests and other capital transfers
- 4 Balance sheets, wealth account
- 5 Simulation models
- 6 NTA estimates and analysis for population sub-groups
- 7 Intergenerational Indicators
- 8 Gender
- 9 Time use
- 10 Demographic dividends
- 11 Public sector
- 12 Family
- 13 New Issues in NTA framework
- 14 Other NTA related topics

Submit:

- a) Information form (see below)
- b) A brief abstract of proposed paper (100- 200 words is fine).

Deadline for submissions: August 1st, 2011

Email: meeting@ntaccounts.org

8th Global NTA Meeting
“Intergenerational Approaches to Social and Economic Policy”
Submission Form

Authors:

Paper title:

Corresponding author:

Email address for corresponding author:

Oral session, Poster session, or both:

Topical area (see list above; list up to three topics):

Abstract: