

Development of the National Transfer Accounts Project

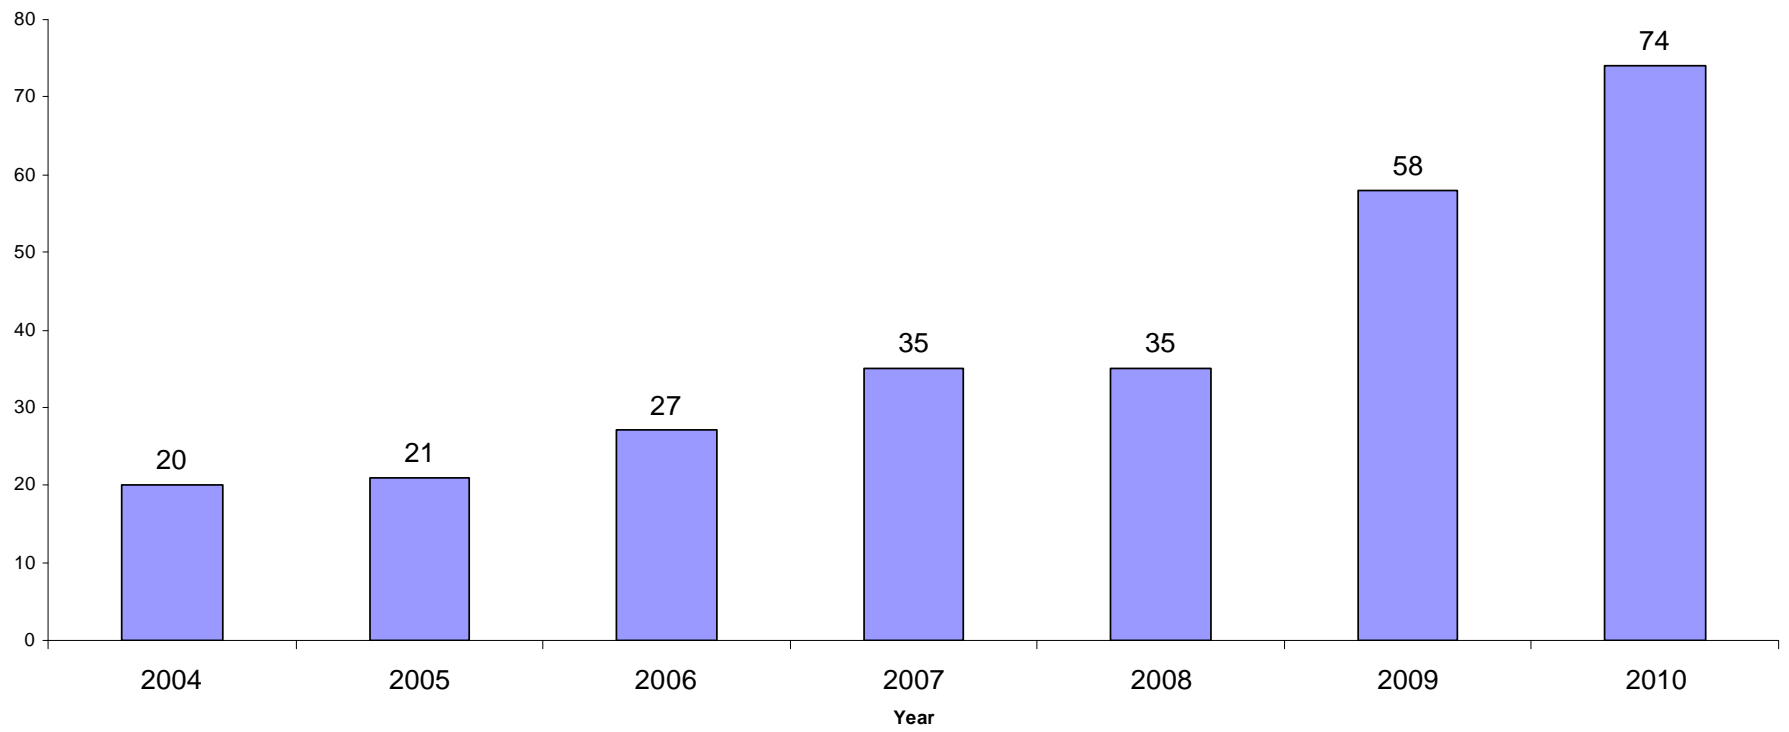

NTA Project

- Started with 7 countries in 2004
- As of June 2010, it has 33 country members
- Covers 66% of the world population in 2010, and 76% of Real Gross World Product in 2007
- 7 global annual meetings
- 11 regional meetings
- 7 training workshops (including 4 EWC Summer Seminars)

Number of NTA Countries

Number of Participants in NTA Annual Meeting

Global NTA Annual Meetings

	Location	When	# participants	# country	countries
1st	Berkeley	January 2004	7	7	Brazil, Chile, Indonesia, Japan, France, Taiwan, US
2nd	Berkeley	January 2005	21	8	Australia
3rd	Honolulu	January 2006	27	9	Korea
4th	Berkeley	January 2007	35	19	Thailand, China, India, Philippines, Sweden, Uruguay, Austria, Costa Rica, Slovenia, Mexico
5th	Seoul	November 2008	35	26	Finland, Hungary, Kenya, Nigeria, Germany, Spain
6th	Berkeley	January 2009	58	28	South Africa, Senegal, Mozambique
7th	Honolulu	June 2010	71	33	United Kingdom, Argentina, Canada, Jamaica, Colombia
8th	Rio de Janeiro	2011	?	?	?

Communication Project

- Objectives:
 - To increase understanding of generational issues among policy makers and the media
 - To build the identity and credibility of the NTA network
 - To improve communication among research teams within the network
- Grant from the International Development Research Center (IDRC) of Canada

National Transfer Accounts Project Country Members

